

CONSTITUTION FOR
ST. PAUL'S UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST
MADRID, IOWA

PREAMBLE

This church is a community of people called by God to nurture each other, serve those in need, and transform our lives by listening attentively to God who is still speaking. In faith, this church acknowledges as its sole Head, Jesus Christ, the Son of God and the Savior of all.

People gather together as a congregation in this church to worship God, to preach the gospel of Jesus Christ, to celebrate the sacraments, to realize Christian fellowship and unity within the church and the church universal, to render loving service toward all and to strive for righteousness, justice and peace. The members of this church are bound together by a common faith and by a continuing covenant among the members and friends.

Article I: Name

The local name of this church is St. Paul's United Church of Christ. It is located at: 115 South Cedar Street, Madrid, Iowa.

Article II: Purpose and Mission

No matter who you are or where you are on life's journey you are welcome at St. Paul's United Church of Christ. We provide opportunities for members and friends alike to engage in worship and celebration. We provide a nurturing environment through fellowship, education, faith exploration, and growth in our journey. We encourage the stewardship of our time, talents, financial resources, and the environment. We pursue social justice and action, continuing to reach out beyond ourselves.

Article III: Covenant of Faith

The members of this faith community covenant with God and one another to walk together in the way of Christian faith. We are united in striving to know the will of God as taught in Holy Scriptures. We affirm the tenets of the Christian faith, proclaiming the Gospel of Jesus Christ by embodying God's love and justice in all that we do. Within this unity, however, each member shall have the undisturbed right to listen for God's voice according to the dictates of his or her conscience, under the enlightenment of the Holy Spirit.

Article IV: Polity

The government of this church is vested in its members, who exercise the right of control in all its affairs, subject in legal matters to the Articles of Incorporation granted it by the Secretary of State of Iowa. Members seek the guidance and inspiration of Jesus Christ in matters of faith and discipline through the Holy Scriptures using reason, faith, and conscience. Without forfeiting any of the responsibility or control vested in its members, this church is a member of the Central Association of the Iowa Conference of the United Church of Christ. Suggestions and actions of the Iowa Conference and the General Synod of the United Church of Christ are respected and taken into consideration.

Article V: Governing Body

The governing body of this church will be the members assembled at the Annual Congregational Meeting and at any specially called Congregational Meeting. A quorum is twenty percent (20%) of the church members. A quorum of the Official Board is 60% of its members. A simple majority vote is the rule except where otherwise specified. At the annual meeting the congregation receives reports from all boards, committees, commissions, task forces and recognized church activity groups, and from the pastor. These reports summarize the activities of these groups during the current year and are to be part of the permanent record of St. Paul's.

The Executive Board is elected at the Annual Congregational Meeting. The Official Board is selected from the elected committee members at the Annual Meeting. A chairperson is chosen to represent their committee on the Official Board. They act as the governing body between Congregational Meetings.

The congregation, through the church by-laws, establishes the lengths of the terms of office of the members of the Board. They also, through the by-laws, specify the tenures of members of the Board in their offices, including the number of consecutive terms an individual may serve in any one office.

Article VI: Meetings

Special business meetings may be called at any time by the Moderator/Director or in response to a request made by an Officer of the Church, a committee or board, or a quorum (20%) of the membership of the church.

The annual meeting is held in October to address the affairs of the church.

A meeting to call or dismiss a Pastor requires a 20% quorum of the church membership.

Approved October 27, 2024 previously approved November 20, 2016

When calling a Pastor a favorable 67% vote of confidence is needed by the membership attending the special called congregational meeting. When non-approval/dismissal of a Pastor is deemed necessary at least a 67% vote of the membership attending the special called congregational meeting is required.

Article VII: Limitation Of Debt

No officer, committee or board of the church will incur any indebtedness of the church beyond the approved annual budget without the congregational membership vote of approval. Approval of the Congregation/Membership for incurring debt will direct the Chairperson of the Board of Trustees and the Moderator/Director of the church to be signatory of the loan incurring the debt.

Article VIII: Committees, Boards and Special Appointments

The Executive Board of this church is the Pastor, Director/Moderator, Vice Moderator, Board Secretary, Financial Secretary, Treasurer, and Recording Secretary. This Board will respond to immediate concerns and issues that arise between the regular meetings of the Official Board and Congregation.

Prospective members of the following committees and delegates are submitted by the Nominating Committee and elected at the Annual Congregational Meeting. Nominations are accepted from the floor.

4. The Financial Secretary receives records and deposits all offerings.

5. The Treasurer is responsible for paying all bills and maintaining records of distribution.

6. The Recording Secretary maintains accurate records dealing with the membership roster.

He/she serves on the Membership and Church Growth Committee.

Article X: The Ministry

The Pastor is called to Tell The Story. He/she is responsible for the stated services of worship, administering the sacraments and giving general direction to the gatherings of the church. The Pastor is an ex-officio member of all boards and committees. Policies and procedures for engaging the services of a pastor are set out in the by-laws of St. Paul's Church and are consistent with the policies and procedures of the Iowa Conference of the United Church of Christ.

Article XI: Amending the Constitution

This Constitution may be amended by the membership of St. Paul's at a regular or specially called Congregational Meeting. All amendments will be published and presented to the congregation at a regular or specially called Congregational Meeting and voted upon at the next regular or specially called Congregational Meeting as long as two (2) months have expired between presentation of the amendment and the vote securing its passage. A two-thirds (67%) vote of a quorum present, is needed in favor of the amendment to secure its passage.

Article XII: Adoption

The provisions of this constitution become effective when accepted and adopted by the membership and will supersede any and all constitution, articles, rules, or amendments previously adopted by this church.

BY-LAWS OF
ST. PAUL'S UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST,
MADRID, IOWA

ARTICLE I: MEMBERSHIP

1. Becoming a Member:

ARTICLE VIII: STANDING RULES

1. The Official Board keeps a record of rules adopted by the church and by the church board. At least two complete copies are maintained by the Board Secretary.

2. All committees and organizations likewise keep a record of their rules. At least two complete copies are maintained by the Board Secretary. The Secretary makes an additional copy of the pertinent rules for each newly appointed or elected committee member or executive officer. The secretary distributes updated policies and procedures at the planning meeting in January.

3. Finances:

A. The fiscal year is January 1 through December 31.

B. The funds of St. Paul's are kept in two accounts to be used for separate purposes. The General Fund consists of a chart of accounts prepared by the Finance and Mission Committee with the approval of the Official Board. These accounts represent the daily operations of the church and pastoral support. Pledges and general collections are deposited to this account unless otherwise specified by donor. A budget is approved yearly at the annual meeting to regulate this account. As long as there are funds available, a committee may spend up to their budgeted amount without further approval by the Board. Any expenditure above budget must be approved before the transaction occurs. In the event of income above or below the budgeted amount, the Board may amend the budget accordingly. Budgeted amounts may be carried forward to the next fiscal year with Board approval.

C. Designated Funds consist of monies received from pledges, special offerings or gifts. The Board assigns categories as necessary with the assistance of the Finance and Mission Committee. The Official Board may combine, eliminate, or establish new accounts as well as transfer money from the general accounts for accruals.

D. It is the policy of St. Paul's to donate at least 25% of any fundraising monies to a charity outside the local church unless all the proceeds of such fundraisers are being applied to a special need of the congregation (roof, step repair, etc.). Such a fundraiser will require prior Board approval.

4. All organizations connected with the church and using its facilities are regarded as integral parts of the church and under its general jurisdiction.

5. No rule is valid which violates the letter or spirit of the constitution and by-laws of St. Paul's United Church of Christ.

ARTICLE IX: AMENDING THE BY-LAWS

These By-Laws may be amended by the membership of St. Paul's at a regular or specially called Congregational Meeting. All amendments are published and presented to the congregation at a regular or specially called Congregational Meeting and voted upon at the next regular or specially called Congregational Meeting as long as two (2) months have expired between presentation of the amendment and the vote securing its passage. A two-thirds vote, of a quorum present, is needed in favor of the amendment to secure its passage.

ARTICLE X: DISSOLUTION

In the event the members of the church vote for dissolution of the church, all real estate, properties, goods, monies and funds belonging to this church will, after payment of any indebtedness, bills and claims, become the property of the Central Association of the United Church of Christ, subject only to such limitations as may be provided in any bequests or other gifts making up the invested reserves of the church.

ARTICLE XI: ADOPTION

The provisions of these by-laws become effective with approval by congregational vote and supersede any and all articles, rules, by-laws or amendments previously adopted by this church.

Approved October 27, 2024 previously approved November 20, 2016
